1. In August 1952 the Chinese Communist Government ordered that an Anhwei Government and an Anhwei Military District be officially established (B-2). This followed the merger of the North and South Anhwei Military Districts in January 1952. The East China Military Area had appointed LIU Fei (0491/7378), commander of the South Anhwei Military District, to administer both districts from Hefei (117-18, 31-50) until a unified command was established. The personnel of the South Anhwei Military District Command and the South Anhwei Temporary Administrative Office had been moved to the premises of the North Anhwei Military District in Hefei in December 1951.
2. Key personnel of the Anhwei Military District are as follows:
 - a. Commander: LIU Fei
 - b. Political commissar: TS'ENG Hsi-sheng (2582/1585/5110)¹
 - c. Deputy political commissars: NIU Shu-ts'ai (3662/2885/2088)¹ and LI Shih-yen (2621/0013/8698)
 - d. Chief of staff: YEN Kuang (0917/0342)
 - e. Director of the Political Department: LIU Chien-t'ing (0491/0256/2185)
3. The Public Security Tsung Tui (4920/7130) of the North and South Anhwei Military Districts have been merged and designated the Anhwei Public Security Tsung Tui. LI Shih-huai (2621/0013/2037) is commander of this unit.

1. [REDACTED] According to a New China News Agency broadcast from Peiping on 14 August 1952 these men also held posts in the Anhwei Committee of the Chinese Communist Party.
